

SENIOR FLOODING AND DRAINAGE ENGINEER

As a result of the re-structuring of our business over the last year, unfortunately the firm is no longer recruiting new employees to provide this service.

The market for experienced flooding and drainage engineers in Eastern Australia remains buoyant and potential applicants for this type of position are encouraged to make enquiries with organisations from both the private and public sector that specialise in this field.